

the 7th is a doll, adored by all 4 yr-old Norah. I knowie found her true vocation when she became a Mother. She is the best Skow, And they have a home that everyone loves to visit.

My own story is as follows.
Wp 9 Y.W. 39-40 - couldn't stand the Q. Seen & vice versa - forcibly transferred to Pequa Y.W. '40-'42. Married an Englishman in '42 at Fort Point Camp. St didn't like and was free 3 yrs later.
Worked at the Windsor Y.M.-Y.W.

6. ~~for~~ from '42-'45 & then joined the U.S. War Services & had a ball for nearly a year.

In May '47 I went to Smith's as P.D. and stayed 5 yrs.
-enjoyed every minute.

In '50 I met another Englishman (also called Sohu) & married him. We adopted Soanie in '54 at the age of 5 weeks and she has been our pride & joy (and at times our despair!) ever since.

We moved to Mass. in '56 and just loved New England
-saw Miss Somers fairly <sup>all</sup> frequently. Enjoy her so much.

She's just fine - put on a little weight - still nervous - very hospitable - pretty little home on the Cape.

In Nov. of last year (we were on the road when S.F.K. was killed) we moved to this area. Since John was transferred to be - come Regional Mgr. of Ohio, Mich., Ky. and W. Va. It is a beautiful spot & only 200 miles from Windsor (Browne lives 16 miles out of Windsor in Woodlee.)

7. He 3 went to England two yrs ago (Sam was given his trip for 15 yrs of employment with Gestetner Corp.)

Shave been taking music <sup>(piano)</sup> lessons for 3 to 4 yrs now. It's hard work but Sam enjoys it. Soan is studying too - but she has some natural talent. So going to be quite a question as to which will win.

- a) Soan - Talent and no desire
  - b) Sam - no " " bags of " !
- Not to speak of age difference!

Oh yes and I still swim. Sam with the Dayton Synchronettes who put on 2 or more shows a year. They are being good, and sometimes I feel very old. I raced 2-26 yr olds last week and the result (me 3rd) was only 2/10 <sup>sec.</sup> apart! Only they could have done it again in a few minutes and I couldn't!

We have a lovely home here, built on the side of the hill with the river (formerly red canoe), complete with screened-in bar-be-que and a billiard room! (We've been trying to buy it, but they won't sell.)

My dear - You'll be beat reading this. My love & best wishes to you.
Write if you will, I'd love to hear ~~affectionately~~
